29 Travis Street. Buxton, QLD 4660

Located in the beautiful river side town of Buxton this quaint 3-bedroom home on a beautiful 800m<sup>2</sup> allotment is fresh to the market. Owned for many years, the owners have decided to sell. The home would suit those who enjoy the peaceful lifestyle of a small fishing village. And want to be within walking distance to the Isis River, Boat ramp and general store.

The low-set home has exposed beams on the cathedral ceiling in the dining / living rooms. All the bedrooms have built in robes and ceiling fans. The fully functional kitchen has all electrical appliances and overlooks the dining/ living rooms. The home has a good-sized family bathroom, separate toilet, and laundry.

The front porch with beautiful glimpses of the river runs the full length of the house and would be great to relax on after a morning of fishing. The home has well established easy to maintain gardens, 2 x 5000 litre water tanks and septic system. There is a double door garage at the rear of the property.

This property is currently tenanted, 24 hours'
